

I have really appreciated not getting all those worthless phone calls in the evening. PLease don't rescind the "no call list"! I'm having a hip replaced in the near future and don't want to be bothered with extra calls.